FRANCO-JAPANESE AGREEMENT IS RATIFIED AT IMPERIAL PALACE: OCCUPATION OF INDO-CHINA BASES TO BE COMPLETED WITHIN NEXT FEW DAYS

AT THE IMPERIAL PALACE IN TOKYO YESTERDAY, IN THE PRESENCE OF THE EMPEROR, THE FRANCO-JAPANESE AGREEMENT, PERMITTING JAPANESE FORCES TO OCCUPY BASES IN INDO-CHINA, WAS FORMALLY RATIFIED BY THE PRIVY COUNCIL.

Details of the agreement, says a Reuter message from London, have not yet been published but full occupation of the bases is expected to be completed within the next few days.

THE VANGUARD OF THE MAIN BODIES OF JAPANESE TROOPS, BELIEVED TO BE ON FOUR TRANSPORTS AND FOUR DESTROYERS, WILL ARRIVE AT SAIGON TOMORROW.

The Japanese military mission in Saigon, according to Reuter, stated that as the result of an urgent radio request, 190 military lorries had arrived from Hanoi.

"JAPAN WANTS PEACE," declared the Japanese Consul to the Press in Manila yesterday. He added, "UNLESS SHE IS PROVOKED BEYOND HUMAN ENDURANCE JAPAN WON'T FIGHT. THERE IS NO SENSE IN FIGHTING BECAUSE EVEN THE WINNER WILL LOSE IN THE END."

ALLEGED JAPANESE DEMAND ON THAILAND, REPORT

SINGAPORE, July 28 (Reuter)—"I do not acknowledge at all any demands or representations but speaking for myself, I have no reason to believe there had been any," the Thai Consul-General, M. NETINATI, told Reuter regarding the report from Chungking of an alleged Japanese demand on Thailand to join the new East Asia order.

He added that the single harbour facility Thailand has is not much of a naval base situated in comparatively shallow water.

Moreover, Thailand has a treaty whereby Japan has undertaken to respect Thailand's integrity and independence.

"Thailand's desire to adhere to strict neutrality in all circumstances has been unmistakably reiterated and I do not think Japan will provoke Thailand to defend herself unnecessarily by presenting demands which would not in any way facilitate Japan's alleged plans as a look at the map shows."

EXCELLENT RELATIONS

Referring to relations between Britain and Thailand, M. Netinatti said they are excellent as was shown by the presence for the last two weeks of a Thai military mission who arrived at the invitation of the C-in-C of the Far East.

The Thai authorities are grateful for the cordiality with which they were received here by all representatives of the services.

JAPANESE COLLECT SCRAP IRON

The Japanese have collected large quantities of scrap iron at Shekiang, the Bocca Tigris and Wei Yuan forts and in the district of Nambot and shipped them elsewhere.

The machinery at the Shekiang power plant was dismantled.—(Central News).

DEFENCE GRANT TO P.I.

MANILA, July 28 (Reuter)—A grant of $10,000,000 was made by the United States to the Philippines Government for immediate defence purposes, it is learned from reliable sources.

The money will be used, it is reported, in connexion with the grouping of the Philippine Defence Units under the command of General Douglas MacArthur, Commander-in-Chief of the United States forces in the Far East.

HOPKINS GIVES ENCOURAGEMENT

"Mr. Harry Hopkins, on his return to America, leaves us immensely encouraged and more than ever certain that victory will be ours," said MAJOR ALLEN MURRAY when he broadcast from London last night.

Mr. Hopkins had come to Britain to find out what more we needed from America to ensure victory. The speaker was particularly struck with Mr. Hopkins' words that America would not fail us.

So far, America had not suffered the blood, toil, sweat and tears that we have. Four-engine bombers would be sent over to seek out the most remote German factories and smash them.

In Manila yesterday, GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR conferred with Staff officers of the U.S. Army and with PRESIDENT MANUEL QUEZON who has given his presidential yacht to the United States Navy for use as a minefield patrol ship.

In London, the Far East situation was discussed between the Foreign Secretary, MR. ANTHONY EDEN, and DR. VAN KLEFFENS, the Netherlands Foreign Minister.

EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

TOKYO, July 28 (Reuter)—The Japan-French Indo-China Joint Defence Pact was formally ratified by the Privy Council in an extraordinary session held at the Imperial Palace today from 4.30 to 5 p.m. in the presence of the Emperor.

All the Privy Counsellors, headed by the President, Mr. Yoshimichi Yara, and the Vice-President, Admiral Kantaro Suzuki, attended the session while the Prime Minister Prince Konoye and all other members of the Cabinet including the Director of the Cabinet Bureau of Legislation, Mr. Naokai Murase represented the Government.

Prior to the extraordinary sessions, the Investigatory Committee of the Privy Council questioned Government leaders concerning the contents of the new Pact and discussed every detail from all angles from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 1.30 to 3.30 p.m.

Members of the Investigatory Committee, had not only approved the new Pact, it is understood, but also encouraged the Government to be prepared to cope with any situation which may arise in the co-prosperity sphere of East Asia.

The Japanese-French joint defence move is no warrant to the United States for application of economic sanctions because the

EFFICIENCY OF MALAYA'S DEFENCES

SINGAPORE, July 28 (Reuter)—The efficiency of Malaya's defences is praised by the Thai Military Mission which is returning to Bangkok on Thursday after nearly three weeks' stay.

The leader of the Mission, Lieut.-Col. Luang Sura Narong informed Reuter they had every reason to be satisfied with the visit which had been most interesting.

They were particularly struck at the great efficiency of the defences of Malaya, and were grateful for the courtesy shown by the C-in-C and the Governor and the cordiality and reception to them by the Services.

The Mission was "at home" to the Commander-in-Chief, the Governor and officials this evening.

WOP GENERAL KILLED

LONDON, July 28 (Reuter)—From Milan, it is stated that the General commanding the Italian Mediterranean air fleet was killed in the recent raid on Malta.

Japan To Follow The Example Of United States In Application Of Freezing Regulations: Advice To Japanese By Finance Minister

TOKYO, July 28 (Reuter)—It is reliably understood that Japan is to follow the example of the United States in the application of freezing regulations, meanwhile taking no further action until necessary.

This view is upheld by the Finance Ministry statement assuring "elasticity" in application for control.

This is almost identical with Mr. Sumner Welles' statement to the Press of "complete flexibility" of control of Japanese assets in America.

Official confirmation of British freezing of Japanese assets is still awaited.

Meanwhile, the Japanese Government has apparently decided to refrain from a formal statement for the time being, PRESUMABLY OUT OF THE WISH TO AVOID FURTHER AGGRAVATION.

Present indications do not promise further fireworks along this line.

"The people must not be dismayed at the action of the United States in freezing Japanese assets, but place all their faith in their own Government."

This advice to the Japanese was offered by the Finance Minister, Mr. Masatsune Ogura, during a newspaper interview.

The Yokohama Silk Exchange is holding a special meeting today to consider the American action and to discuss measures to meet the new situation.

"WHAT WE WANTED"

TOKYO, July 28 (Reuter)—The NICHU NICHU SHIMBUN says that Britain, by abrogating the commercial treaties "has been good enough to do just what we wanted" and declares Japan, for long, had found these treaties "inconvenient" as they obliged this country to extend favoured nation privileges in East Asia to third nations hostile to Japan.

Moreover, these treaties were said also to have been disadvantageous to Japan since the European war has upset the trade balance.

Referring to frozen Japanese assets, the Nichi Nichi Shimbun hopes this may be the very incentive which Japan needed to overcome the difficulties of acquiring her own supplies and natural resources in Asia.

CONFUSION REIGNS

SHANGHAI, July 28 (Reuter)—With Anglo-American banks still awaiting for clear instructions on the freezing of Japanese assets, much confusion reigned in the business world today resulting in the most violent fluctuations of various markets, the local

FREEZING OF CHINESE ASSETS

LONDON, July 29 (Reuter)—It was officially confirmed in London last night that the Chinese Government has requested the British Government to freeze Chinese assets in Britain and the British Empire.

Measures will be put into effect shortly.

OIL OBJECTIVES IN CONSTANZA BOMBED BY SOVIETS: FINNISH WARSHIP ON COAST DEFENCE HIT

Nazi Effort To Excuse Failure Of Blitzkrieg

"During the night of July 27, operations of our troops continued in the regions of Nevel, Smolensk and Zhito-mir," states a Soviet mid-day communique, as reported by the Moscow Radio yesterday.

"In other sectors of the front, nothing of importance took place. Our Air Force during the night of July 27, in co-operation with land forces, continued operations against enemy units and their airfields and bombed oil objectives in Constanza.

"Our Air Force also bombed a Finnish warship engaged on coastal defence. Direct hits by 500-kilogram bombs were observed. Great explosions followed."

NEAR Leningrad

BERLIN, July 28 (Reuter)—A German advance within 45 miles of Leningrad yesterday is indicated by the official German News Agency DNB today as other German war reports told of Nazi planes dropping hundreds of thousands of pounds of demolition and incendiary bombs on Moscow.

EXCUSE FOR FAILURE

LONDON, July 28 (Reuter)—In an effort to excuse the failure of the blitzkrieg, the Nazi Government is telling the German people

BEIRUT ALSO RAIDED BY NAZIS

Proof Established

LONDON, July 28 (Reuter)—Proof has now been received that the Nazis also raided Beirut during the British campaign in Syria, in an effort to rouse feeling against the British for their bombing "atrocities."

Whereas the official British figure for the number of raids on Beirut during the campaign is 17, the Fire Chief in Beirut states that the city had 27 alarms.

Neutral observers also declare that there were more raids on Beirut than are accounted for in the British figure.

Two bombers brought down in one of these raids were examined by neutral observers, who found them to be a three-engine type, while the R.A.F. has no machines of this class.

An unexploded German bomb was also found.

CHUNGKING'S FOREIGN EXPORTS

CHUNGKING, July 28 (Central)—In the period from January 1 to June 30 this year, 54,485 quintals of wood oil were exported from Chungking for foreign markets, making an average of 9,077.50 quintals per month. Compared with the first six months of 1940, this is an increase of over 4,000 quintals.

Export of raw silk, mostly white silk, this year more than doubled that of the corresponding period of last year—1,447.03 quintals for 1941 and 611.74 quintals for 1940.

The increase in the quantity of bristles exported was more than 20 per cent, to 5,097.50 quintals of bristles were exported between January and June this year against only 4,114.25 quintals during the first half of last year.

Canadian Aircraft Production

LONDON, July 28 (BWS)—Satisfactory news of an increasing number of aircraft being made in Canada was received here today when it was announced that production in the quarter ended June 30 was 25 per cent greater than that of the preceding three months.

The figure now reached is 10 times higher than the entire output for 1939.

Today's News Summary

RATIFICATION OF THE FRANCO-JAPANESE agreement concerning Japanese occupation of bases in Indo-China was formally made in Tokyo yesterday at a ceremony held in the Imperial Palace in the presence of the Emperor of Japan. The occupation of the naval and air bases is expected to be completed within a few days. The Japanese Consul in Manila has stated that Japan will not fight unless she is provoked beyond human endurance.

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 11 WEEKS, LONDON was bombed on Sunday night. Bad weather restricted British air operations over enemy territory but a small force of bombers was sent to attack the docks at Dunkirk.

THE BATTLE OF SMOLENSK, ON THE EASTERN FRONT, is still raging. The Russian Air Force have bombed oil objectives in the Rumanian port of Constanza. Excuses for the failure of the blitzkrieg are now being made by the German High Command.

CONFUSION REIGNED IN THE BANKS IN SHANGHAI following the United States action in freezing Japanese assets.

THE EFFICIENCY OF THE DEFENCES OF MALAYA has been praised by the Thailand military mission.

A CHUNGKING REPORT ALLEGES THAT JAPAN has made demands on Thailand to join the new order in East Asia.

Britain's Mastery In Mediterranean Proved

In a commentary, broadcast from London yesterday, MAJOR ALLEN MURRAY said he thought the most outstanding event of the war in the past few days had been the proof of Britain's mastery in the Mediterranean.

The attack on Malta by small Italian surface craft had been wiped out by the shore defences and R.A.F. fighters.

Malta was only 60 miles from Sicily and had been subjected to air attacks practically every day without any effect on it or its people. The Italian raid amounted to a forlorn hope because the attack was mastered by the defence from the word "go". The attack may have been to test the shore defences of Malta.

Major Murray next referred to the story of the convoy attack lasting three days and three nights and in which the convoy was subjected to attack by every conceivable thing. Only one ship was damaged and it was a really surprising thing that the escorts' loss was not more than one destroyer.

In an attack on an Italian convoy we took three out of four ships and a destroyer was damaged. This must have been a very damaging blow to what prestige the Italians have left in the Mediterranean.

SEVEN "CLEAN SWEEPS" HIGHLIGHT OF LAWN BOWLS LEAGUE PROGRAMME LAST WEEK

Formidable Recreio Rinks Beaten In Open Tournament BY "L. G."

The highlights of the bowls matches decided last Saturday were the great number of clubs securing clean sweep wins and A. R. Dallah's "possible" (the first one in the First Division) against P. A. Peekham's K.B.G.C. "B" rink. No fewer than seven clubs (three in the First and two each in the other two Divisions) secured the maximum five points, i.e. rather more than half the number of bowls matches played on Saturday.

The absence of such stalwarts as Charlie Rosset, Alfred Coates and K. M. Omar from their ranks did not prevent Craigen-gower from making a clean sweep win over their neighbours, the Police. To Joe Landolt, who deputised for Rosset as skip, went the credit for the biggest rink win for Craigen-gower. He beat J. Shepherd by 24 shots. U. M. Omar registered a 18 shot win over J. Fender and B. W. Bradbury beat Wally Mair by six shots.

The Indian R.C. at Sookunpoo beat Kowloon Bowling Green "B" on all three rinks. A. R. Dallah's rink (J. Hoosen, A. K. Ismail and U. A. Rumjahn) scored a "possible" on the third head against Peekham's rink. It was Rumjahn, shots. F. Cullen, after an exciting tussle during which the lead changed hands alternately, tied with N. Bebbington at 21 all.

M. Ferguson also had a ding-dong struggle against Teddy Fincher, but he lost by one shot at the end of the game.

INTERESTING GAME
The two teams in the Second Division which secured maximum points were Hongkong Cricket Club and Kowloon Football Club, their victims being the Prison Officers and Craigen-gower respectively.

The most interesting game in this Division was the one at King's Park where Recreio entertained the Hongkong F. C. and lost on aggregate by the narrow margin of 4 shots, though they were actually up on two rinks.

K. S. Robertson's rink (R. P. Shaw, C. B. Robertson and A. Brooksbank) saved the day for the Hongkong Footballers with their 21 shot win over J. R. Soares. Robertson took 16 heads on which to score his 35 shots.

Of the other two, H.K.F.C. skips, W. Gill lost to C. C. Pereira by 17-26 and W. MacFarlane did very well to be only 8 shots down to M. A. Carvalho, considering the fact that he was 1-17 in arrears after the first seven heads.

Visiting Kowloon C.C. at Cox's Road, Talkoo won on two rinks and on the aggregate by 30 shots to secure 4 points.

Skip J. C. Chalmers was responsible for this big win; he beat T. W. Carr by 34 shots to establish a new League record for the current season. It took Chalmers 15 heads to score his 40 shots, thereby conceding six scoring heads to Carr, on each of which he (Carr) could do no better than score a single.

W. Melrose beat L. Jack by 9 shots but J. A. Watson lost to J. M. Jack by 13 shots.

AGGREGATE TIE
Kowloon Bowling Green Club, leaders in the Third Division, obtained three points in their match against the Indian R.C. as the result of their win on two rinks and tie on the aggregate, both teams securing 58 shots in all.

Another exciting match in the Third Division was the Craigen-gower Recreio encounter at the Valley. This game went to the home team solely as the result of Alvaro Coelho's big win over P. Yvanovich by 25 shots. Both the other Craigen-gower skips were beaten, M. J. Medina losing to A. P. Pereira by 18-29 and F. K. Modi going down to M. F. Pina by the same scores.

RINKS CHAMPIONSHIP
Further progress was made in the Colony Rink's Championship when five more matches were played on Sunday last. As a result of these games two more Recreio rinks, both formidable on paper, have been ousted.

Dickie Alves' rink comprising Leo Silva, Albert Rodrigues and Chico Ribeiro went down badly to the tune of 10-24 to an Indian R.C. rink composed of Jeff Hoosen, A. M. Rumjahn, A. R. Dallah and Abe Abbas.

Alves was up against it most of the time, his three front men being very much off colour, with the result that, more often than not, when he went down to roll his woods the lie was against him.

On the other hand, Abbas' front men were in tip-top shape, particularly Dallah, who, as Abbas' No. 3, was drawing very well with the Jack.

Abbas himself was playing very well also, although (and

CANADIAN HENLEY REGATTA

SAINT CATHERINE, ONTARIO, July 28 (Reuter).—The 100th Canadian Henley regatta revealed Ted Dubois of Winnipeg as a likely successor to Joe Burk as the world premier sculler.

Dubois won the single sculls, beating Joe Angyal of Brooklyn, U.S.A., after a stern race over one mile 550 yards in eight minutes 10 seconds.

Dubois beat Angyal in the recent American championship and last year was second to Burk for both the American and Canadian titles.

Buffalo Westsides had more successes on the last day of the regatta and won team honours for the second successive year.

SUMMER FOURSOMES TOURNAMENT RESULTS

He is the first to admit it) that shot of his that not only deprived Alves of a bottle of John Haig whisky, but also came in off a front wood for the shot was a lucky one.

SYKES IMPRESSES
The other Portuguese rink that fell by the wayside on Sunday was the one skipped by Johnny Ribeiro consisting of Joe Luz, C. E. Marques and Len Xavier. Their conquerors were Alfred Hall's K.B.G.C. rink composed of L. Sykes, W. McNeil and Bob Duncan.

Here again the Portuguese struck a bad patch and lost heavily by 10-31.

Sykes' Hall's lead, was impressive; seldom did he fall to be near the Jack, and he certainly had much the better of Joe Luz in their tussle. With Duncan and Hall both playing good bowls there was little doubt as to the outcome of the game from the word go.

PROGRAMME FOR SATURDAY
The following is the Bowls programme for the coming Saturday:

Practised Medicine While Unregistered: Kowloon City Schoolmistress Summoned

Hearing was commenced before Mr. H. C. Macnamara at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday of the case in which Cheung Chi-yuk, woman, of No. 1, Stirling Road, was summoned for practising medicine or surgery without being registered at No. 86, Nga Tsin Wai Road, Kowloon City, on June 8.

Chief Det.-Insp. C. D. I. Carey appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. E. S. C. Brooks for the defence.

According to the prosecution, defendant was a schoolmistress and the owner of a school in Nga Tsin Wai Road. She also practises Chinese medicine.

As the result of information received a woman, Ko Mui, was sent to see defendant about a certain sickness on June 3. On June 6, an injection of a solution of liver extract was to have been given to Ko Mui but, as defendant was preparing the hypodermic syringe, the Police arrived and prevented the injection being given.

Although a solution of liver extract was obtainable from dispensaries it should only be administered by doctors, said C. D. I. Carey, as a wrong dose or incorrect way of giving the injection might have serious repercussions.

MEDICAL EVIDENCE

Dr. H. H. Tai, Health Officer of Kowloon City, testified to finding on a table in a dark corner of the room, a small bottle containing a solution of liver extract, an injection set with metal box, a 5 c.c. glass syringe, two injection needles, two ampoule files, a bottle of rectified spirit of wine, a stethoscope and other instruments.

In reply to Mr. Brooks, witness said that as far as he knew none of the articles mentioned, with the exception of the spirit of wine and ampoule files, were used by Chinese doctors practising Chinese medicine.

Ko Mui, in evidence, said that at 2 p.m. on June 3 she went with her brother-in-law, Li Chun, to defendant's premises and asked for the doctor. Defendant was alleged to have replied that she was a doctor and to have asked witness what her complaint was.

INJECTION PROPOSED

Witness then described what was alleged to have taken place during her three visits to No. 86, Nga Tsin Wai Road. On her third visit, said witness, she suggested to defendant that something be given to her to help her recover her health quicker. Defendant was then alleged to have proposed that she take an injection, a proposal which witness agreed to after learning that the price was $3. A deposit of $2 was paid, and the next day was fixed for the injection to take place.

On her arrival the next day with her brother-in-law defendant was not in but returned after about ten minutes.

After detailing what happened when the Police party arrived, witness denied, in reply to a question by C. D. I. Carey, that she was acting under the instructions of the Police. She stated that she was really sick and went to consult defendant at the suggestion of her brother-in-law.

Further hearing was then adjourned to 2.30 p.m. on Aug. 5.

Imaginary Shortage Of Cent Notes

Inquiries made by the Hongkong Daily Press into the alleged shortage of one-cent notes and coins revealed that this shortage is more imaginary than real.

During a tour of various stores and stalls, including cigarette stalls, our reporter experienced no difficulty whatsoever in obtaining small change. As a matter of fact, at the end of the "shopping expedition" the pressman was in possession of nearly 30 one-cent notes and about 10 copper cents.

The only difficulty experienced was on public vehicles. For some reason or the other, tram conductors have made it a rule to give a three-cent tram coupon and a one-cent note as change for a ten-cent piece for a six-cent journey.

This practice has, however, been carried on for some time and was, as a matter of fact, in existence even during the first week of the issuance of the five million one-cent notes.

As to the alleged difficulty in obtaining even one dollar's worth of these notes from the banks, it was pointed out by the official of a leading bank that such small change is given out every morning to money-changers and other concerns the nature of whose business necessitate the use of large quantities of such small change.

According to an official of the Hongkong Treasury there are at present approximately $100,000 worth of one-cent notes and coins in circulation which is more than sufficient for the Colony's needs.

MR. A. E. SOUTHARD DUE NEXT MONTH

Mr. Addison E. Southard, the American Consul-General in Hongkong, who has been away on furlough in the United States since early in May is expected to return to his post here about the middle of August.

Mr. Southard, who has been visiting his home town, Louisville, Ky., and has also paid a visit to Washington, D.C., left the United States on route to the Colony about a week ago, it was learned yesterday from the American Consulate.

He is travelling by sea, and will probably touch Manila on his journey here.

STONES AT BUS

Stones were thrown at a bus while it was proceeding along Sai Kung Road, Kowloon City, on Sunday, resulting in two window panes being smashed, according to a report made to the Police by Lam Cheung, driver of the bus.

LANDLORD LOSES ACTION FOR PREMISES

POSSESSION CLAIM NOT BONA FIDE

Stating that the Court was abundantly satisfied that the claim was not a bona fide one and that that case had been brought solely for the purpose of evading the provisions of the Ordinance, Mr. Justice P. E. F. Cressall at the Summary Court yesterday decided in favour of the defendant in the case in which the Chor Chun Co., Ltd., of No. 26 Leighton Hill Road, claimed possession of the second floor of No. 61 Wellington Street from its tenant, Wong Sau-chi, for the purpose of reconstruction.

The issue at dispute was whether vacant possession was necessary to enable the reconstruction of the premises and whether the possession desired was bona fide for the purpose of such reconstruction and not for the purpose of evading the provisions of the Ordinance.

Mr. S. Ng Quinn represented the plaintiffs while Mr. F. R. Zimmermann was for the defendant.

NOTICE TO QUIT

Notice to quit was given defendant on May 24 expiring on June 24. Plaintiffs also claimed mesne profits of $28 being rents for the month of June, and costs of the action.

Yip Hin-ng, architect, testified that he drew up the plans for the reconstruction of the premises in question. In his opinion the flat must be vacant for necessary work to commence.

Yeung Chap-po, husband of defendant, gave evidence that he had lived in the premises since June 1938 and was perfectly satisfied with the premises. The rents were increased to $38 in March. On June 23 he wrote to Messrs. Hall and Brutton stating he was willing to vacate the premises temporary and asking for the tenancy at rents to be assessed by the Assessor. No reply was received to this letter.

PEACEFUL OCCUPATION

Giving judgment his Lordship remarked that when the landlord demanded an increase in rents it would be presumed that he intended the tenant to enjoy peaceful occupation of the premises for some time. One did not expect the landlord to increase the rents of his premises and then within two months endeavour to obtain possession within that time.

The Lordship entered into judgment for the defendant with costs.

Two other men, Li Yee, 24, house cooler, and Wong Pun, 30, shop foki, also charged with the possession count, were fined $50 each.

Mr. E. C. Luscombe, A. S. P., who was present in Court, said that lately large numbers of lottery tickets had been smuggled into the Colony from Macao, and he believed that defendant's premises was one of the distribution centres for these tickets.

Table money amounting to $12 picked up in the raid was ordered confiscated.

They were Lo Kwai, 25, cooler, Kwok Wing, 21, cooler, and Lam Tak-kai, elevator boy.

An unemployed, Au Ping, 28, was charged with receiving the stolen property, while a further charge of conspiracy to steal was preferred against all four defendants.

First and second defendants pleaded guilty to the larceny charge and were fined $150 or two months' hard labour each. Third and fourth defendants were discharged owing to insufficient evidence.

Mr. W. A. Mackinlay appeared for the prosecution, and Det.-Sgt. J. Bentley was present for the Police.

AT KOWLOON

TRIAD SOCIETY MEMBER

Chan Yan-kwong was sentenced to six months' hard labour when he pleaded guilty before Mr. H. C. Macnamara yesterday to the charge of being a member of a triad society.

According to Det.-Sgt. Baldwin, who prosecuted, a Chinese detective was in the Yat Ding Ho Tea House, Shanghai Street, at 11.30 p.m. on Saturday when he overheard defendant, who was seated at a nearby table with a few friends, asking one of the friends why he wanted to join the Street Guards.

Defendant was further alleged to have accused the local Police as being "like running dogs," and to have advised his friend to return to the country and join the Police force there if he wanted to do something.

Accused was arrested by the detective as he was leaving the tea-house and, on being questioned, admitted being a member of the Wo On Lok Triad Society.

STREET FIGHT SEQUEL

So Lin was standing near a water-fountain at Tai Nam Street, near Cedar Street, about 7.45 p.m. on Sunday, when Wong Shum came up to draw water from the tap. The former considerably permitted the latter to have the first use of the tap and was repaid by Wong closing the tap after he had filled his buckets.

On So Lin remonstrating with him, Wong got angry. Words led to blows. Not content with giving So a beating-up, Wong went and collected three of his friends and gave complainant another beating-up.

That was the story told to Mr. Macnamara yesterday by Insp. W. H. Nolloth when he prosecuted Wong Shum on the charge of assaulting So Lin. Defendant was fined $10 or 14 days' hard labour.

SALARY INCREASE FOR TEACHERS

Solicitous for the plight of primary school teachers and social education workers in various places as a result of the high cost of living, the Executive Yuan has circularised the provincial and municipal governments throughout Free China ordering them to see to it that they be given a salary increase in the near future.

Owing to their low salaries, many of these teachers and social education workers, according to reports, have been forced to look for other jobs thus greatly affecting the mass education programme. Meanwhile, the Ministry of Education has ordered the educational authorities in various municipalities to make an investigation into the educational administration with a view to its improvement. — (Central News)

WHEN GRAPES ARE SOUR

HAVING been responsible for the earnest endeavours we have made to give our reading public the best value in news, the "regular channels" of which we sought to amplify by using authorised and official news bulletins broadcast by the B.B.C., and having raised the subsequent controversy as to whether or not such action is justified from the point of view of modern journalism, we cannot permit the quips, insinuations and innuendos made by our morning contemporary yesterday, in reply to the explanation we offered our readers on the present position on this subject, to pass without comment. Our contemporary's attempt to belittle the issues by accusing us of distorting them is an insult to the intelligence of the reading public, which, from the opinions expressed to us by those who appreciated our efforts to give them the latest news, is perfectly in agreement with us that this "resistance" by vested interests to suppress information from the best recognised official source in London tastes strongly of sour grapes. When our contemporary writer speaks of picked up news escaping censorship, the charge of distorting the issues can immediately be levelled against him, because he is just as aware as we are that the B.B.C. will never be permitted to broadcast uncensored news—and it is solely with B.B.C. news bulletins that we are concerned, because we can afford to contemptuously dismiss the suggestion of the "simple trick," which our contemporary appears to know so much about, of inserting news from other sources into the so-called "regular channels."

WHEN our contemporary concluded his comments on this subject by referring to attempts to give the public the news to which they are entitled as a "less reputable form" of modern journalism, he certainly rushes in where angels fear to tread, because we know for a certainty that some of the biggest newspaper organisations in Britain and the United States make a very full and complete use of news picked up on the radio from all parts of the world. To condemn all such newspapers, who have resources and organisations far superior to the vaunted resources and organisation of our morning contemporary, as practising and adopting "less reputable forms of modern journalism" is a descent from the absurd to the ridiculous. The reading public today wants its news at the earliest opportunity and if that news can be obtained from a reliable and authentic source, such as the B.B.C., it can scarcely be classed as an attempt at a less reputable form of journalism. To do so would be to cast a doubt on the veracity of the B.B.C. news broadcasts and to imply that it cannot be accepted unless it comes through

Japanese Trade With Colony
Hard Hit By Freezing Order

The Hongkong Government's action in freezing Japanese credits in the Colony, according to observers, will deal a deadly blow to Japanese trade here and that it has caused a grave concern among the local Japanese community is evidenced by the fact the Japanese Consul, Mr. S. Kimura, attended office on Sunday and stayed up to 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Although the total amount of Japanese assets in Hongkong is unascertainable, it is believed to be considerable. The Mitsui Bussan Kaisha and the Mitsubishi Shoji Kaisha, two of the largest Japanese commercial establishments, the Nippon Suisan Kaisha, the Osaka Sosen Kaisha and the Daiwa Fisen Kaisha, three large Japanese shipping companies, and the Yokohama Specie Bank and the Bank of Taiwan all have branches here.

Besides, there are also a number of Japanese shops dealing mainly in lacquer goods and porcelain in the Wanchai area. All these will suffer terribly as a result of the freezing order.

Japanese trade with the Colony has been voluminous during the past few years. Japanese piece goods, paper, cycling materials, and sea food have a great market here. Hongkong has also been an important port of call for Japanese ships in recent years. The diversion of the 25,000-ton luxury liner Nitta Maru and the Nagato Maru, both of which were due on Sunday, has thus aroused considerable interest.

"WAIT AND SEE"

Meanwhile, Chinese commercial circles are greatly concerned about the developments in Indo-China. Majority of the Chinese merchants are adopting a "wait and see" attitude and withholding orders pending clarification of the situation.

It is generally expected that trade with Indo-China in the future will be drastically curtailed. The main imports of this Colony from Indo-China are rice, salt and coal, while the chief exports are tea and cotton goods.

Kwangchowwan, French leased territory to the east of Indo-China, is also feeling uneasy as a result of the announcement of the Vichy-Tokyo agreement. According to a report in the National Times quoting an arrival from that port on Sunday quite a big stir has been created there in view of its proximity with Indo-China.

It is alleged that the Japanese Mission there has again made demands on the French authorities to examine goods passing through the port. The French authorities, however, it is said, have not yet replied to these demands.

Many Chinese merchants there, foreseeing developments unfavourable to them, are making preparations to wind up their business and pack up ready to leave the port at any moment.

POCKET PICKED

Mr. Spark, of Jardine, Matheson & Co., Ltd., reported to the Police that he had his pocket picked near the General Post Office at 3.30 p.m. yesterday. He lost $106.

these much-talked-of "regular channels."

IN ORDER that the position with regard to this subject, which we have accepted for the time being, may be clear to the public, we quote the cabled reply received from the Secretary of State to our request for permission to pick up B.B.C. news bulletins. It reads: "Local publication of news bulletins broadcast by B.B.C. can only be arranged in agreement with Reuters. As regards publication of talks by Steed, Bartlett and others, position is that unless copyright is withheld by B.B.C. in announcement following talks, all talks are available for publication in any newspaper within three months of date of transmission. Occasions when copyright is withheld are very rare." That is the actual position. As far as the talks and commentaries are concerned, it is interesting to note that when our contemporary lightly dismisses these as "uninformative," they include broadcasts by H.M. the King, the Prime Minister, the Chancellor of the Exchequer and other prominent and expert speakers on world affairs. These talks we shall continue to publish as we know they are read with much interest. As for the news, we have decided to refer the matter Home.

"TSE FA"
RACKET
AGAIN

The "tse fa" racket, which was at one time in full swing in the Colony but was stamped out following the arrival of the new Commissioner of Police, Hon. Mr. J. P. Pennerfather-Evans, has reappeared in recent weeks according to vernacular papers.

It is reported that the "tse fa" gang has established its main centre in the Central district, while their sub-agents are spread all over the Colony.

It is learned the present "tse fa" is run on a smaller scale than before. The matter is receiving the attention of the Police authorities.

STAB WOUND ON CHEST
ALLEGED: NEWSPAPER
HAWKER IS COMMITTED

WAN WING-HUNG, 21, newspaper hawker, was committed for trial by Mr. H. G. Sheldon, K.C., at the Central Magistracy yesterday on a charge of the murder of a fellow-hawker, YU SIK-LAU, by feloniously stabbing him with malice aforethought, at Connaught Road Central, on June 25.

Previously the charge against accused was one of wounding, but the present charge was preferred when Yu succumbed on July 1 to his wounds.

Det. Insp. L. R. Whant conducted the prosecution.

Outlining the case, Insp. Whant said that on the afternoon of June 25, deceased and a group of people, including two principal witnesses, Chan Shing-wai and Fung Chao-chiu, were gambling at "pal kau" on the pavement between Nos. 54 and 56 in Connaught Road Central. Deceased was also present, but did not take part in the game, merely looking on.

PAWNED COAT

During the game, accused took off his jacket and asked a man to go and pawn it, which that man did and handed the proceeds back to accused.

After the gambling, accused had his money laid on the pavement in front of him. Deceased was seen to go forward and pick up a "ten-cent piece" at the same time saying: "Give me back my 10 cents." Accused disagreed and said that he did not even have enough money to redeem his own jacket, he being in his underwear then.

$500 FOR A BOWL
OF RICE

Mrs. Selwyn-Clarke, Hon. Secretary of the China Defence League, announces a particularly generous contribution to the current Bowl of Rice Campaign for relief of refugees through Chinese Industrial Co-operatives.

Mr. Li Yat Ngok, well-known Hongkong resident, recently forwarded to the League a cheque for HK$500 as a contribution to the Campaign Fund. In return, he was sent a single book of tickets for a Bowl of Rice luncheon at the Ying King Restaurant on Aug. 1 when the contributing restaurants in Hongkong will be open for all supporters of the Campaign with a simple meal of chow fan and soup.

Bowl Of Rice Campaign To Be Held In Singapore

The Bowl of Rice campaign for raising money for the China Relief Fund—one of the most popular methods of collecting charities in the United States and Hongkong—is to be launched in Singapore for the first time on Sept. 18, the tenth anniversary of the Mukden Incident, says the Malaya Tribune.

Circulars inviting the co-operation of all Chinese restaurants in Singapore to make the campaign a big success have been issued by the Women's Section of the China Relief Fund Committee, through whose initiative the campaign is being launched.

Tickets will be sold at a dollar each, for which each owner will be entitled to a bowl of rice at any of the restaurants joining in the campaign that day.

The Bowl of Rice campaign has been one of the most popular methods of raising funds for China's suffering in several of the big cities in the United States, San Francisco in particular, and in many cases, America's leading personalities have attended such events.

In Hongkong, the public sale of tickets at $2 each started on Thursday last. These tickets are exchangeable, at any of the restaurants, mentioned in the Monday issue of the Hongkong Daily Press, on Aug. 1, 2 and 3, for a Bowl of Rice per ticket.

FORTHCOMING

The following forthcoming marriages were announced at the Registry, Supreme Court, yesterday:—

Mr. Wu Man-hon, merchant, of No. 100 King's Road, first floor, and Miss Lee Sin-man, teacher, of the same address.

GREAT AND NEW MEANING TO THE WORD "BRITAIN": GRATITUDE OF THE U.S.A.

"Your behaviour has given a great and new meaning to the word 'Britain.' It means courage, cheerfulness, determination, generosity, sacrifice. It is a great thing and the greatest thing that any people can do to restore confidence," said MISS DOROTHY THOMPSON, the distinguished American journalist and commentator, when she broadcast from London on Sunday.

Miss Thompson said that have without any money considerations. We have said to you: 'Carry on and hold fast until we are prepared. We will help you.' That is a good neighbour's act."

REASON FOR CONFIDENCE

Miss Thompson then paid a tribute to the manner in which conscription had successfully worked out in the United States. The men who had now come into the army and the other fighting forces were a fine lot of husky fellows. Many of them had already come over to Britain and were serving with the British army and other units.

"It took us a long while to get our industries working well—perhaps too long, you will say," said Miss Thompson. "But all this is a great deal to have happened in a year. We have a President who usually gets his way and he is just as bent on defeating Herr Hitler as Mr. Churchill is."

"We have every reason for confidence. We know that the common people all over the world and on all the continents are on our side. Our two great nations are now bound together with an affection such as never existed before. Nothing can now put us apart. The new world we are going to build is not a world of masters and slaves, but a world which will be worthy of so much suffering and so much faith."

NEWSETTES

A distinguished gathering was present at the reception given on Friday evening by the China Society in honour of Dr. Wellington Koo, the new Chinese Ambassador to the Court of St. James.

As a measure of relief to primary school teachers in the province, the Hunan Provincial Government has decided that the salaries of teachers be paid in grains. The new ruling will come into force as from September this year.

Mr. P. E. Witham will address the Hongkong Rotary Club today on "Assam," at the following meeting of the Club, on Tuesday next, Aug. 5. Mr. J. H. Vander Laan will give an illustrated talk on "Java."

Co-operatives enterprises in Kweichow are progressing by leaps and bounds. At present the province claims a total of 9,641 co-operatives to which a total sum of $12,000,000 has been granted in the form of credit loans. Further efforts at the promotion of the co-operatives movement are being made by the provincial authorities.

"You people of Britain have relieved more minds from fear than you can imagine. In doing that you have defeated Herr Hitler, because you have already defeated Nazism."

Miss Thompson said that at one time there were people who felt that perhaps, after all, there was something in Nazism, but only the craven felt that way now.

NEW MEANING

"Your behaviour," continued Miss Thompson, "has given a great and new meaning to the word 'Britain.' It means courage, cheerfulness, determination, generosity, sacrifice. It is a great thing and the greatest thing that any people can do to restore confidence."

Miss Thompson said that with regard to the change that had come over America, it would be noticed that it was pretty impressive. First of all they had the Neutrality Act and the Cash and Carry system, which had meant that no goods would be sold to Britain or any of the other belligerents. Herr Hitler had counted on that. At the same time the United States did not have any army to speak of and her industries had been mainly engaged in turning out automobiles, fridges and radios.

"We were still living under the illusion that the war was far away and could not possibly touch us," said Miss Thompson. "Now we have the Lease and Lend Act and it is one of the most imaginative acts ever passed. Herr Hitler is talking a lot about his new order, but that Lease and Lend Act is the first contribution to a new international order and a new international spirit."

"It means that our two nations have agreed to share what they have. The Alexandra Military Hospital is now open in Singapore for the exclusive use of the services. It is fully equipped to meet any emergency."

Mr. Rewi Alley, technical adviser to the Chinese Industrial Co-operatives, has arrived in Singapore from Hongkong en route to Rangoon. From Rangoon he will proceed to Yunnan where he will inspect C.I.C. work.

FIRST AIR ATTACK ON LONDON IN 11 WEEKS

LONDON, July 28 (Reuter)—Three enemy aircraft are now known to have been destroyed in raids on this country on Sunday night when there was considerable activity over South-east England and the London area.

IT WAS THE FIRST ATTACK ON LONDON FOR 11 WEEKS EXCEPT FOR THE FEW BOMBS ON THE OUTSKIRTS EARLY IN JUNE.

The enemy planes were not numerous although the attack was sharp.

Bombs were dropped in several districts and a number of people were killed and injured in a residential area.

Six are feared to be missing in a house which received a direct hit. R.A.F. night fighters were active and a heavy and well-directed barrage was put up which seemed to keep away all but a few of the raiders.

BAD WEATHER

LONDON, July 28 (Reuter)—Bad weather restricted the activities of the R. A. F. last night, but a small force of bombers was sent to Dunkirk to deal with docks there.

Mines were laid extensively in enemy waters by aircraft of Bomber and Coastal Commands.

Aircraft of Fighter Command attacked enemy aerodromes in Northern France during the night.

One aircraft of Bomber Command is missing from these operations.

Thirty-four planes attacked Chungking while the others raided Luchow, Tieluching, Hochwan and Peipai.

There was a big battle over the city as a new fast type of Chinese fighters engaged the raiders.

LOYANG RAID

LOYANG, July 28 (Central)—Six Japanese planes from their base in Anhwei came to raid Loyang on Saturday morning, dropping bombs inside and outside the city. Afterwards they flew over Mengtsin and Kunghsien, town east of Loyang on the south bank of the Yellow River.

TOKYO, July 28 (Reuter)—The Government has instructed the Japanese Ambassador to France to inform the Vichy Government regarding the formal ratification of the Pact.

It is understood Japan and France do not expect to hold the customary ceremonies for the exchange of the ratification paper, instead the Pact will become effective as soon as the countries notify each other of the ratification.

JAPANESE SOLDIERS COMMIT SUICIDE

The corpses of four Japanese soldiers were found in a park in Sunwui on July 15. They are believed to have committed suicide.

More than 20 Japanese officers and soldiers at Fashan are reported to have also committed suicide because of war-weariness. —(Central News).

HUNAN PEASANTS SHOT

Convicted on the charge of violation of the anti-opium law by secretly engaging in poppy cultivation, Tu Ping-cheng and Tan Chih, peasants of the Chungling village in Yunnan, were executed by order of the Yunnan District Government. —(Central News).

Japan To Follow Example Of United States

The local Japanese Consul-General announced the control of transaction involving Japanese and Americans in Shanghai, including Rights regarding immovable property.

Enterprises, businesses and funds usable in business; Securities valued more than 20 yen;

Foreign and domestic exchange; and Acquirement or transfer of Japanese military notes or equivalent in Chinese currency amounting to more than ¥500 monthly.

IN LINE WITH TOKYO

The Korean Government, Consul-General in Shanghai and Japanese Consular officials in North China announced the transactions between the Japanese and Americans will hereafter be strictly controlled in line with Tokyo's action in freezing American assets.

MUST CUT OFF

SINGAPORE, July 28 (Reuter)—The democracies must cut off all trading relations with Japan as completely as with Germany, says the STRAITS TIMES, warning that vested interests who would not give up valuable market with out a struggle should be watched very closely if Japan is not to find herself in a position in a few months to laugh at the freezing orders.

The present gesture does more harm than good if it proves to be an empty one. The paper is of the opinion that if Japan is reduced to a condition in which she is forced to take desperate measures such as seeking relief and armed force, the struggle would not be a very long one.

N. E. I. SUSPENSION

BATAVIA, July 28 (Reuter)—An announcement was made at the People's Council by the Director of Economic Affairs as follows:—

Firstly, starting from today, provisionally, foreign exchanges between the N. E. I. and Japan are suspended;

Secondly, all export to the Japanese Empire, Manchukuo, China and Indo-China are liable to special licences;

Thirdly, the banks are forbidden to pay and receive values on ac-

REMARKABLE FACTS

MOSCOW, July 28 (Reuter)—M. Lozovsky, at a Press conference, states that remarkable facts have been revealed confirming the great part by Russian guerilla units behind the German lines in territory occupied by the Germans.

New examples occur daily of the valour which render the occupation of numerous places, nominally in the hands of the invaders, most precarious.

Guerillas were often in contact with the regular Red Army units to watch convoys and petrol going to the front and organise their interception.

Among clever guerilla tricks which cause panic among the Germans and which are widely practised everywhere are wires stretched across the roads at night to knock off motor-cyclists and iron bars spiked across the roads to puncture the tyres.

The German Command is infuriated by these activities, M. Lozovsky added, and captured guerillas are killed with horrible tortures.

Nevertheless, they and the populations supporting them are more determined than ever.

RUSSIAN GUERRILLAS

LONDON, July 28 (Reuter)—Russia's continued firm resistance to the German attacks is emphasised in editorials dealing with the war situation.

The parallel between the defence by Russian guerillas, and similar work that might be done by the British Home Guards is emphasised by the YORKSHIRE POST which says the Russian campaign has shown what determined guerilla defence can do over familiar ground by countering the

LIVERPOOL CATHEDRAL

LONDON, July 28 (BWS)—After 16 years of unremitting labour, the new and "old" sections of the Liverpool Cathedral were used again together yesterday for the first time.

Removal of the dividing wall reveals the choir in its proper relative position.

The most central space now visible in its entirety has an area just over 15,000 square feet which is approximately the same as a similar feature of St. Peter's at Rome.

Another noteworthy feature is the height of the under-tower vault which at 176 feet is 74 feet higher than have the Westminster Abbey itself, the highest vault in England.

FUTILE EFFORT AT REPRISAL

LONDON, July 28 (Reuter)—The latest General Headquarters communiqué from Cairo says that the Australian patrol from Tobruk which captured an enemy position on Friday remained in possession of it until Saturday night, when it withdrew, after having inflicted further casualties on the enemy.

A rather futile effort at reprisal was made when three strong enemy patrols approached the Tobruk defences. The defenders drove them off with rifle fire alone and sustained no casualties.

There are solid grounds for believing that in the Home Guard Britain has found a similar sturdy reply to the menace of an airborne invasion.

History Of The Alarm Clock

BOSTON.—There was no single, universal means of insuring against oversleeping before the advent of the alarm clock. One very general means in use in early times was to have someone else stay awake to serve as a two-legged alarm clock at the agreed time. It is said that among the Benedictine monks, one of their number would read his psalms through the night, and when he came to a certain passage he would leave his psalter and no ring the bell-ringer bell to wake his brother monks. This activity on the part of the Benedictine bell-ringer served also to rouse the citizens in the village located near the monastery. Then, too, in early times most people of importance had slaves or servants whom they could order to do duty as an alarm clock. Another early two-legged alarm clock had feathers. For thousands of years people judged the time for arising by the sound of the rooster's crow.

Another, more strenuous, type of alarm clock was used by Chinese messengers. A stick of punk was wedged between the messenger's big toe and his neighbour, and when the stick burned down to his foot, the messenger awoke. There may be a few accomplished individuals who can serve as their own alarm clock and wake at any predetermined hour, without outside help of any kind. A "familiar" legend holds that Napoleon was able to wake up by his own efforts at any set hour. This myth, however, suffered a severe setback when it became known that the "little corporal" carried an elaborate alarm clock with him on all his campaigns.

SKI PATROL

Derived from newspaper headlines and from natural dramatic possibilities of ski warfare, Universal's "Ski Patrol" is headline attraction and it opens today at the Majestic theatre.

Played by a well-rounded cast, the film exacts moving drama and furious action from the unique and tragic situation of soldiers on skis defending their homeland against an overwhelming force using the most modern war equipment.

Philip Dorn, Dutch star of European films, is impressive as a young lieutenant with the ski troops. Lulu Dixie provides both romantic and dramatic interest opposite Dorn and others who register effectively are Samuel S. Hinds, Stanley Fields, Edward Norris, Hardie Albright, John Quailin, John Aledge, Christian Rub, John Ellis and Henry Brandon. Kathryn Adams, beautiful newcomer, is a distinct hit.

Low Landers' direction maintains a fast pace. Milton Kraser's photography is "top" and the picture was well mounted by Ben Pivar, associate producer.

U.S. AVIATRIX FERRIES BOMBER

Miss Jacqueline Cochran, famous American aviatrix, recently became the first woman to fly a bomber from North America to Great Britain for use by the Royal Air Force.

Miss Cochran told the Press that she had had "a wonderful trip without incident. The weather was perfect." She said that her only companion aboard the bomber was a Captain Carlisle. Miss Cochran established a new world's speed record over a 2,000-kilometre course in April, 1940, of 321 miles an hour. She also won the Los Angeles-to-Cleveland Bendix transcontinental air race the same year.

CHUNGKING GRATIFIED

CHUNGKING, July 28 (Central)—A Government spokesman yesterday expressed gratification at the prompt and energetic measures taken by the British Government with the support of other members of the British Commonwealth and the Government of India to counter Japan's fresh aggression in Indo-China.

The severance of all trade relations between the British Empire and Japan and the freezing of Japanese assets which followed so closely similar action taken by the United States Government, the spokesman said, not only dealt a most serious blow to Japan's already weakened financial and economic structure but also demonstrated the ever increasing solidarity among the Democratic Powers.

China welcomes this strengthening of the anti-aggression front in the Pacific area as elsewhere, the spokesman added.

AFGHANISTAN NEUTRALITY

PESHAWAR, July 28 (Reuter)—An official announcement made at Kabul on Saturday once again declared Afghanistan's neutrality in the present war and that the Government wished that there be no misapprehension abroad.

The declaration said that Afghanistan strictly adhered to her policy of neutrality and maintained extremely cordial relations with the belligerent powers.

YOU ARE NOT FIGHTING ALONE

Italians In Asmara Are Co-operative

ASMARA, Eritrea, July 28 (Reuter)—Some Italians in this British occupied town are now coming out into the open as anti-Fascists. Others are unwilling to commit themselves while they suspect that there is any chance of Fascism returning, but practically all of them, officials and civilians, show an almost unnatural readiness to co-operate with the British authorities, writes Reuter's Chief correspondent in Cairo.

The general feeling among the Italians here is one of bitterness against their leaders. The political problem, however, is small compared with the economic problem facing the British administration.

Eritrea has always been developed by the Italians as a show place on uneconomic lines. A big attempt is now being made to get the economic life of the country running. Eritrea has numerous garages and works ready for anything except to build cars, and they are said to be only equalled in England by Birmingham in numbers and equipment.

British possession of this Eritrean port of machine tools is helping to solve the transport problems of the Middle East. In addition to finding employment wherever possible, the British are supporting women and children with regular allowances.

Good relations exist between the Italians and British, South African and Indian troops now being garrisoned in the country. The feeling of irritation against the Italian leaders never varies.

Eritrean sea, rail and road routes are being opened by the authorities. The railway from the Red Sea port of Massawa, which may yet form a valuable link with Sudan, was fortunately little damaged and its cheap transport will reduce the cost of living.

Eritrea has been the testing ground of what Britain can do in administering and feeding occupied territory. Doubtless the experience gained here will be invaluable later in the harder post-war task of feeding Europe's millions.

INDIAN V.C. ON HOME LEAVE

BOMBAY, July 28 (Reuter)—Second Lieutenant P. S. Bhagat, first Indian V.C. of the present war, has arrived in India on two months' leave.

Looking extremely fit, Lt. Bhagat refused to say anything about himself but was full of praise for the part played by Indian troops in East Africa.

Broadcasting from the Bombay station of the All-India Radio, he spoke highly of the work of Indian sappers at Kereti, Tede-san, Massawa and Amba Alagi.

Wearing a miniature V.C. attached to a dark red ribbon now, Lt. Bhagat will receive the Cross from the King-Emperor.

BRITISH NATIONALS IN SHANGHAI

CHUNGKING, July 28 (Central)—Reports that British nationals in Shanghai are preparing to evacuate the city are denied by responsible British quarters there, according to a dispatch received here.

These quarters, the dispatch says, characterize the reports as malicious propaganda and believe that Shanghai, as a metropolis of international character, will not be affected despite the present kaleidoscopic changes in the world situation.

ender of an entire Slovak mechanized regiment.

The blitzkrieg is a wash-out," he added. "When we declared in the days following the surprise attack that the loss of certain territories was not vital, some people thought that we exaggerated. But the Soviet Union, with scores of industrial centres, can afford to lose a small proportion of territory."

I asked M. Lozovsky for particulars of the bombing of the Ploesti pipeline, the centre of the Rumanian oilfields. He smiled, saying: "Ploesti, there is nothing left but the name."

MR. HARRY HOPKINS' ENCOURAGING WORDS TO BRITISH PEOPLE

LONDON, July 28 (Reuter)—"Tonight British and American warships are patrolling the Atlantic on parallel lanes with only one object in view, namely to guard the world's life-line," said President Roosevelt's personal envoy, Mr. Harry Hopkins, during a broadcast from London last night.

Mr. Hopkins mentioned that the bomber in which he flew the Atlantic recently was accompanied by 20 other bombers and he declared that thousands of American aircraft have already been flown across the Atlantic or had been shipped to Britain.

"I came here on business which is the same as that of every other American down to the man who drives a rivet in shipyards or runs the lathe in aeroplane factories—the business of safeguarding our heritage of freedom of thought and action."

Mr. Hopkins declared: "Right progress. Rivetting never stops night and day."

"We can promise that there will be ships to carry food, oil and ammunition."

AMERICAN PLANES
"Today American-made tanks are caterpillaring over the sands of the eastern deserts. Today every kind of American-made aeroplane is roaring into combat wherever the Luftwaffe shows fight. Today British factories are in full production using machine tools made in America."

"Yet we realize that our part today has not been great. Our contribution has been but a modest part in your great war effort. The blood, toll, sweat and tears have been yours—not ours. We realize this. This is a reason for our apparent slowness. The factories geared to peace-time production, had to be converted overnight. It took time to realize that the war might be decided in the factories of Detroit and Los Angeles, in Pittsburgh steel mills, in Pennsylvania mines. That is realised today. American industry now joins hands with the men who work for Beaverbrook and Bevin in forgetting disputes, in limiting holidays, in sacrificing for a common victory."

BRIDGE OF FRIENDSHIP
After declaring that he had carried out President Roosevelt's instructions to find out just what Britain need now and whether cargoes were arriving safely, Mr. Hopkins continued: "Today the Atlantic is merely a channel. A bridge of friendship spans it. A bridge of sympathy and admiration extends from Washington to London and although unseen, it is so strong that all the powers of darkness and Nazi terrorism cannot destroy it. We no longer measure distance in miles. The Hun is only 21 miles from Dover, yet he and his pagan ways were 2,000 years away from Dover."

"Like most Americans, I feel that your fight is the fight for the freedom of the whole world and that it must not and will not fail. At one time you received messages of good-will from America. The President realised that that was not enough. He realised that sympathy is human but that a flying Fortress can drop more bombs. He knew that admiration was pleasing but that a destroyer could drop depth charges."

CEASELESS LINE
"The Lease and Lend Bill was the answer, putting our admiration and sympathies into a tangible form and providing a weapon against a tyrant—against a man who would enslave our democracies."

"Until now Britain has not been told just what help America has given. Publication of the exact figures might give the enemy valuable information and jeopardise the Atlantic life-line."

"Now that life-line is much stronger. No enemy action can now stop the ceaseless line of ships coming here daily, laden with something much more substantial than hopes and sympathy. During the past few months, thousands of American-made aeroplanes have been flown across the Atlantic or shipped to Britain."

A vast programme for building thousands of giant Boeing four-engine bombers is far advanced and Hitler will not be able to move his factories far enough to escape their devastating power of destruction.

"America has already sent several hundred tanks throughout your empire. Many more are en route. Ocean-going ships, many of which are oil tankers, have been transferred to Britain. The greatest merchant ship-building programme ever undertaken is in progress."

FOOD QUESTION
"We have not neglected the question of food. America will never allow the British people to go hungry. America has decided to decrease the consumption of food and to increase production. During the next twelve months huge quantities of cheese, pork, eggs, canned salmon, raisins, evaporated milk and concentrated fruit juices will arrive here."

"Thousands of miscellaneous articles important to the war effort are also on their way, from aviation petrol to road-building machinery, chemicals of all kinds and metals. These are coming in increasing volume."

"The Lease and Lend Bill has given the President specific authority to foster this great programme of production and delivery."

"Nor do we forget to look towards the east where China is battling valiantly against the forces menacing democracy. Neither are we forgetful of the magnificent fight the Russians are putting up in defence of their homeland. We Americans are determined to give China and Russia all possible aid—and immediately."

Mr. Churchill asked for the tools; I promise you that they are coming, that an endless assembly belt stretches from our western coast to Britain and to the Middle East and nothing will be allowed to interfere with the full efficiency of this supply line."

TOKYO, July 28 (Reuter)—The Franco-Japanese agreement for the "joint defence" of French Indo-China will be discussed at a committee meeting of the Privy Council today.

It is expected that the agreement will be ratified during the afternoon at a meeting to be held in the presence of the Emperor.

"The people must not be dismayed at the action of the United States in freezing Japanese assets but place all their faith in their own government."

This advice to the Japanese was offered by the Finance Minister, Mr. Masatsune Ogura during a newspaper interview.

MEDICAL RELIEF WORK IN CHUNGSHAN

As the result of happy co-operation between the Superintendent, the Chungshan Overseas Relief Association, the Roman Catholic Church, the Rev. J. L. Galloway of the Baptist Church, Macao, and the various Christian workers in Chungshan, after many delays we were able to send into Chungshan over 80 tons of cracked wheat, donated by the American National Red Cross, China Relief Unit, for free distribution amongst the needy people.

TS'UI HANG
In the latter half of May we were compelled to move our hospital out of the Sun Yat Sen Memorial School Compound due to the inconvenience of passing in and out of the Japanese barracks which are now established in the School. Our one remaining link with the School, which was our home for over two years, is our occupation of the Agricultural Station. However, in spite of many crises and difficulties and dangers we have been able to arrange suitable places for school, hospital and dormitories and carry on.

During the past three years we have experienced air-raids, war and occupation. We have worked under four different magistrates. We have passed through many adventures but not one life has been lost of our staff or refugees.

We still have 134 refugees, of whom over 30 are orphans, 3 blind, 2 mentally deficient and 20 crippled or too old for work. The remainder live on the agricultural station in houses erected by themselves. (N.B. These houses suffered severely in the typhoons early in July.) The cultivated land and fields now exceed 30 acres and practically all the vegetables used in the camp are "home grown," while there is sometimes a surplus to sell in the local market. We also have 4 ducks, 20 chickens, 4 pigs and 4 goats and hope to raise money from this project.

EDUCATION

Two new teachers arrived to join our staff this quarter. Our primary school now has 100 students and five teachers. Mr. Poon Kim Sam acting as Headmaster.

During the summer classes are continuing, with three hours work in the morning, 7 a.m. to 10 a.m., and in the afternoon hand-work such as agriculture, poultry-raising, sewing, knitting, basket-work. Our aim is to make the children—especially the orphans—useful members of society. These orphans have separate dormitory and one young lady teacher is in charge of them. They are the happiest group in the entire camp.

HOSPITAL

Dr. Cheung Hin Kit was appointed Medical Officer in April. In addition to caring for the refugees, we have a health clinic in Ts'ui Hang Village which is well attended by people from the District. We can only charge nominal fees in most cases as the people are poor. A considerable proportion of treatment is free. Malaria has been kept in check with quinine, of which we use a large amount. Cotton wool, vaseline, adhesive plaster, alcohol and turpentine also disappear alarmingly and are increasingly expensive to replace. Interruption of communications with Macao is a further problem the medical staff has to face. In spite of these obstacles, however, excellent work has been done.

Results: Cured 41, Improved 8, Death 1.

Our running costs have naturally gone up. Medicines are difficult to obtain and very much dearer. When one adds to the extra cost the additional problem of securing adequate supplies of imported goods due to difficulties of securing permits from the local authorities, one realises something of the hardships under which our workers carry on. Our warmest thanks must therefore go to Mr. F. T. Young and his staff at Ts'ui Hang and to Dr. Winterstein and the staff at Cuclap.

Donations for the work should be sent to the Superintendent, the Rev. H. A. Winterbach, St. Andrews Church, Kowloon, Hongkong, or paid direct into the Chung Shan Relief Fund at the Hongkong Office of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank.

a catty per dollar, starvation and under-nourishment inevitably follow. From January to June, at a cost of N.C.$3,000 we have been able to sell over 150 piculs of rice and have given relief to many hundreds of people.

From the above report it will be seen that our service to the community is continually increasing. Will friends give us increasing assistance?

CUCLAP HOSPITAL SHEKAI
It is safe to say that the Hospital owes its continued existence to Dr. Winterstein whose patience under adversity, tact in dealing with officials and courage in times of danger are worthy of recognition. Few people have served China more loyally during the past three years.

The second floor of the Hospital is now recognized as the Infectious Diseases Hospital for Shekai and has been specially named the Shew Ward, in recognition of the help both in the past and in the present of Miss L. L. Shew. Here, during the Quarter, we have treated 22 cholera patients, of whom 9 recovered and 13 died. Amongst them were seven children, under five years of age.

HEALTH WORK
We have co-operated in an Anti-Cholera Campaign and inoculated 1,623 people.

We have also initiated an Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign and have examined 363 children in three schools and given treatment to infected or endangered children.

Both these campaigns are continuing. An efficient hospital will always regard the prevention of disease as of more value to a community than its cure.

STATISTICS
Inpatients: 130
Results: Cured 74, Improved 21, Discharged against medical advice 17, Deaths 18.

Outpatients: 511 Total Attendances: 1,130.
Operations: Inpatients 16; Outpatients 34.

DR. BLANK
Dr. Blank resigned and left the Hospital on June 30. We are grateful for his service in Shekai since September 1939. A new assistant has not yet been appointed.

THANKS
This report would not be complete without a word of thanks to those who have helped us finance our work. Especially would we thank the Committee of the British Fund for the Relief of Distress in China, who have once again renewed their grant of five hundred dollars per month for the next six months. Miss L. L. Shew continues her valuable work for China in the U.S.A. and manages to collect subscriptions towards our much-needed microscope as a side-line.

The following figures will indicate the problem of livelihood of the people of Chung Shan. The comparison is between prices in February 1940 and February 1941.

Mediterranean Convoy Runs The Gauntlet Of Enemy Planes, E-Boats

LONDON, July 28 (Reuter).—"The convoy must go through." This was Vice-Admiral Sir James Somerville's order to the Western Mediterranean Fleet, writes Reuter's Special correspondent with the Mediterranean Fleet. Ships' guns and Ark Royal's fighters saw that order executed.

This convoy, carrying, as the First Lord of the Admiralty said on Saturday night, vital reinforcements and munitions, passed through Central Mediterranean and dangerous narrow waters between Sicily and the Libyan coast which Signor Mussolini boasted were closed to the British.

Although the convoy was spotted on the second day out, nothing happened until the following morning when for half an hour bombers and torpedo-carriers dived to attack while the Ark Royal's fighters tore into the raiders.

Two fell flaming into the sea and three others dropped bombs away from the horizon as they fled towards their bases.

Seven bombers roared through, dropping bombs around the warships and merchantmen.

TORPEDO-BOMBERS

Torpedo-bombers followed, skimming the wavetops as they threaded their way through the lines of ships. Three were shot down into the sea.

As the attack finished, we saw a column of black smoke rising from the stern of the destroyer Fearless two miles away.

She signalled abandoning ship and we saw boats creeping towards the destroyer which were standing by to pick up survivors.

There were no further attacks that day but in the evening our fighters smashed an attack by torpedo-bombers before they reached gun-range. Two were shot down and others damaged.

FLYINGBOAT DOWNED

The next morning, a CANT flyingboat which had been shadowing the convoy was forced down and machine-gunned until it burst into flames.

There were no other signs of enemy aircraft although the convoy was within easy range of enemy airbases.

Another CANT was shot down the next morning and later, fighters from an aircraft carrier intercepted a formation of eight Italian bombers which dropped nearly a score of bombs on the horizon as they turned and fled. Two were shot down.

"NEAR MISS"

During a high-level attack, another score of bombs were dropped, one damaging a destroyer by a "near miss."

At midnight the sea was brilliantly lit by flares as enemy aircraft sought for the convoy and in the early morning, six E-boats attacked for an hour, one being destroyed, another damaged, but a torpedo hit one merchantman.

The destroyer embarked the troops she was carrying but the merchantman was able to proceed under her own steam.

Although later attacked by Junkers dive-bombers, one of which was shot down, she safely reached her destination.

The convoy had gone through.

AMERICAN PLANE ENGINES*SAID BEST IN WORLD

Los Angeles.

"Americans can manufacture aircraft engines capable of continuous running far longer than any good engine of European make."Ernest E. Thum, Cleveland, editor of the American Society for Metals' magazine, Metal Progress, made that statement on a recent visit to Los Angeles.This leadership, he said, was achieved through superfine raw materials, expert design and thorough testing of metal parts.Despite utmost care in selecting raw materials, Thum continued, manufacturers find defects showing up during machining or in final testing of completed engine parts.Metallurgical experts eliminate these parts, none finding their way into the assembled power plant, he declared.Thum stressed the fact that within the last six months, greater care than ever in the history of aircraft is being taken to prevent flaws in every part of the plane.WEIGHT REDUCEDL. W. Dehl, San Francisco, regional vice-president of the American Welding Society, said weight of all-welded hulls for C-B cargo vessels is reduced 223 tons.
The weight of the riveted hull being approximately 2,950 tons.He cited this reduction to illustrate the point that every all-welded ship is lighter and more streamlined than the ship with riveted seams and lapped joints."In the modern all-welded ship," he continued, "tank, hull, stays, keel, upper and lower decks and engine blocks are one piece of metal when the welders lay down their tools."All were unanimous in declaring modern metallurgy will enable America to turn out war machines, despite prevailing shortage of certain stringent metals.American science, said one, is ingenious enough to devise new alloys and processes, which will make use of metals found in abundance on this continent.To accomplish this hurdle, he said, metallurgists have devised hundreds of new formulae, which will be considered and sifted before being put to use.U.S. ARMY FLYERS EX-ATHLETESRANDOLPH FIELD, Tex.—If the cadets at Randolph Field become as good at handling a plane as some of them have at passing a football or playing a mean game of lacrosse, they'll be holy terrors for anybody's air armada.Of the 800 cadets at the field, at least half have lettered in a major college sport and those having less than three athletic sweaters are almost ashamed to show them. When a student-pilot like Ralph G. Martin of Detroit, Mich., dons three sweaters and picks eight more under his arm, other former athletes decide it has become too hot for just a single garment.Sports in which the boys have starred include football, baseball, swimming, lacrosse, soccer, and track. Walter R. "Waddie" Young,
All-American from the University of Oklahoma, is one of the multisweatered flying cadets.JAP. INCENDIARISM
IN CHAOCHOWSHUIKWAN, July 28 (Central)— Japanese troops at Chaochow, on the eastern Kwangtung coast, set fire to many houses in the city on July 13, apparently preparing to abandon the city.Part of the Japanese in Tam-shui, on southern Kwangtung coast, on July 19 raided Wanghsinling but was beaten back with losses and fled in the direction of Sichung.JAPANESE TRAIN DISASTERLOYANG, July 28 (Central)—A Chinese railway sabotage corps laid a mine at a point south of Anyang on the Peiping-Hankow Railway in north Honan on July 18.The following morning a Japanese northbound train struck it and was blown up. The locomotive was completely wrecked, while seven coaches were overturned.
A number of Japanese soldiers were killed and wounded.Dick Klock's ColumnLimey O'Toole came round to see me this morning. . . "Say, Dick," he says, "Have you got the dope straight on this guy?" . . . "which guy?" . . . "Feller says 'bout Trudgeon being the first man to make swimming popular."I gave Limey a quizzical look.
As that name they gave him implied, he was no true Irishman.
But that made little difference about his potential in swinging the blame. . . So I says, "Proceed, feller" and I lean back and listen.Limey tells an interesting tale.
"Couple of centuries back," he says.
"At least that far. Maybe more." It was a granddad of mine, sort of ancestor's ancestor.
Must have been near on three hundred years back."What did he do?" . . . "Oh, he popularised swimming." . . . "How he done it?" . . . "Well, granddad was a regular feller Irish as a shamrock and kind of fond of it."
Started with a little hole they had dug in the sand at Kirkerry Kirk."How d'you connect that with swimming?" . . . "Well, it wasn't a big hole at first, but it got bigger."
"How's that?" . . . "Well, you see, it was granddad did it.""Where's she come in, Limey?"
"She was coming home one night over the sands when she sees something glistening down there in the sand.""What was it?" . . . "Dunno, I'm sure, right up to now." . . . "Neither did dad or granddad." . . . "Kind of funny to think back, y'know, them digging so big a hole.""Come down to earth, Limey," I says, "What happened?" . . . "Well, granddad says to granddad, it was a jewel big as your eye, and you're going back there, Michael and find it, even if you got to dig the whole beach up.""Come on, Limey," I says, "I'm pretty busy." . . . "Well," he says,
"Granddad asked a couple of men down and they started to dig. . . .
In due course granddad was up to his neck in the hole so was Desmond Ryan and Pat Flaherty. . . .
"Granddad was raking the sand up from the bottom. . . . Desmond was burrowing out a path to the right and Pat to the left. . . .
Grandma was just sitting there,
scoolding and kind of fingering through the sand. . . . She never found that jewel. . . .""That ain't the story, anyway."
That hole, I was saying, got bigger and bigger. . . . In due course, Pat says he's pretty fed up with all this walooosh. . . . Getting us nowhere, he says, and I've got my potato patch to rake. . . .
"One day, Granddad tells Grandma. . . . Look, woman, he says, I'm getting pretty damp in the ribs wallowing in this hole. . . . Well, you old Satan's son, she replies, what you want to put so much clothes on for? . . . Kind of cold here, Granddad says, and gives a sneeze. . . .
"Then Granddad got kind of angry. . . . Look here, Michael O'Toole, she says, if you won't take off my underclothing this minute,
I won't value your hide any more than a banshee would. . . . It was Granddad's fault. . . . He had put on the old lady's clothes, just to keep warm. . . .
"Well, Grandma was mad as a bee that couldn't find a flower. . . .
So was Mrs. Flaherty and Mrs.
Ryan. . . . The old fellers had rifled even the old clothes pile just so thinking they could keep the outer temperatures on a level with the inner ones, y'know. . . .
"Grandad says, 'Well, Martha, if you're not giving us a chance to be warm, let's stop digging this hole. . . . Y'know, you won't find anything. . . . Grandma says, 'Did you just cross me, Mike O'Toole?'
"Granddad says, 'I wasn't trying.' . . . Here Grandma clouts him one. . . .
"Granddad was still digging the following week. . . . That day, he was chattering, anyway. . . . Cause Grandma had invented the first swimming suit. . . . It reached way up to Granddad's neck and way down to below his shins. . . . He was cursin' and chattering, and so were Desmond and Pat. . . .
"The pool then was about 15 yards wide. . . . The autumn was getting on to winter and the water was getting colder. . . . Grandma was still wanting that jewel. . . .
Then, one day Granddad lay flat on his stomach in that water and waved his arms about in a kind of trundle stroke that was possible after a man's arms are so big from throwing a hammer about. . . .
"He swam one length to keep warm. . . . Then another. . . . Desmond tried the same thing, and soVETERAN
